Youth Activities

Junior Showmanship – Entry Fee $2

A competition of poultry handling skill and knowledge, showmanship is open to all junior exhibitors up to age 18, who may or may not be members of 4-H and/or FFA. Judging will correspond to the current version of the 4-H Poultry Showmanship Standard. Showmanship will be held Saturday starting at 9:30 AM. Competitors are broken into classes as follows:

Primary/Pee-wee: 5 to 8 years old

Novice: 9 years old and up without any previous experience

Junior: 9-11 years old

Intermediate: 12-14 years old

Senior: 15-18 years old

Please indicate which class you will be competing in on your entry form. Your showmanship bird must be entered into the show in order to compete in showmanship. There is a $2.00 entry fee for showmanship. Trophies will be awarded to the first place showman in each class from Novice level upward. Rosettes will be awarded through 8th place in Novice through Senior classes. Contestants in the Pee-wee category will be judged and placed.

Attention parents, 4-H leaders, and showmanship participants:

Birds should ONLY be removed from their show cages for the duration of your child's participation in showmanship. Please utilize "Out for Showmanship" signs provided by Showmanship Chairperson. Replace your bird immediately after you are finished competing. CCFF is NOT responsible if your bird does not get judged in the show when it is absent from its cage without an "Out for Showmanship" sign, or if bird is still missing after all showmanship is over.

We would like to thank Double D feed for sponsoring showmanship again this year.

Avian Bowl of Knowledge

In addition to Showmanship, there will be a poultry quiz based on the ABA and APA Standard of Perfection put on by Larry Stallings.
